

0.0.1 2. Hausaufgabe*Meinung über den Sohn und den Vater von Buch Seite 8-10

I think, the son is, in this excerpt, right. He wants to go his own ways („Oh Dad, can't you see all I want to do is be individualistic?" at line 71). His own ways include becoming an actor, even if there are certain risks connected with not choosing a, though bad-paid, albeit stable job. His father doesn't understand this, he wants his son to do take over his business when he'll be done. But the father can't force his son to do what he wants, resulting in a moot.
